Important information:

- If you do not specify which type of subscription you have chosen, we will reserve the mobile number for 1 month.
- If you do not activate a mobile subscription (or a service) within 30 days, you lose the right to the mobile number.
- Telia gives you a new SIM card, your old SIM card does not work after the number porting
- You must contact your current operator to solve outstanding issues such as remaining commitment period and subscription. Any costs from your current operator must be covered by you.
- The power of attorney and any number specification must be signed by the holder of the mobile number (private individual), or an authorized signatory.
